

African American History Month

LIBRARY OF CONGRESS TEACHING with PRIMARY SOURCES

What is interesting about this passage about white abolitionists?

Based on information from the map why do you think so many people were jailed in Jackson Mississippi?

What information would be helpful in determining the date of publication? When do you think this document was published?

By finding the importance of small details...

By examining primary source documents...

What is the significance of the lyrics of the song?

Based on the photo and any previous knowledge, what issue does Uncle Tom's Cabin discuss?

How can we learn about African American History Month?

By understanding why the item was created...

By understanding historical references...

By looking at the context of sources...

What famous event is visible in the photo below? What man pictured to the right gave a speech that is quoted today?

What is interesting about this photo?

Based on the information on this photo and this man's appearance what is his occupation?

These women were part of the Rhode Island Women's League. What did that organization work to gain?

What does the acronym in this photo stand for?

SLAVEHOLDERS.—Of the 6,222,418 white inhabitants of the South, only 347,253 are owners of slaves. And yet this fraction controls every branch of the Federal Government, and wields its influence for the increase and perpetuation of Slavery. Classification of the Slaveholders in 1850.

Holders of 1 slave	68,220
Holders of 2 and under	105,463
Holders of 3 and under	50,565
Holders of 4 and under	54,595
Holders of 5 and under	29,733
Holders of 6 and under	10,196
Holders of 7 and under	1,479
Holders of 8 and under	137
Holders of 9 and under	56
Holders of 10 and over	9
Total number of Slaveholders	347,253

